

North Star

By Roshan Lamichhane

If there truly is god then it's my mom. She's the one that gave birth to me. She's the one who loved me the most and still loves me the most and will continue to love me. She's the reason I'm still alive, my mom is my greatest power, she is the greatest thing that could ever happen. My mom is my North Star, the reason is that no matter what happens she has never changed as a person.

In my point of view, my mom is the most beautiful person in the world.

My mom has very beautiful eyes. My mom has black hair. My mom resembles my aunt who is my mom's big sister. My mom is also very athletic, she loves to move around and go on walks.

My mom is a very kind and cooperative person. My mom is also very polite, honest and forgiving. My mom is a very practical type of person. She is very smart, artistic and sophisticated. My mom is a very reliable and likable person.

My mom has a beautiful soul, she is a very nice person. If I ever need something and ask my mom she will most likely get it for me. My mom has bought me so many things and I am thankful for that. Some of the things my mom has bought me are multiple computers (5 laptops and 3 desktops that cost over 5000 dollars) so for my mom money is nothing compared to love. "Let us not be satisfied with just giving money. Money is not enough, money can be got, but they need your hearts to love them. So, spread your love everywhere you go."

- Mother Teresa

In my opinion, my mom is the best person in the world. I will never find anyone like her. I also love my dad but I love my mom the most. My mom has supported me with everything that I ever wanted to do since I was a kid. I feel that having a mom is the greatest thing in the world and that people who have a mom should be grateful.
